Khalid Al-Odah— Missing Our Son

When you lose, one of your sons, the oldest son. We are very, very tight family. We love each other very much. Fawzi grow on my hand. So when you lose Fawzi, I mean, when he's not around you, it's very difficult for me, for my wife, for my children. I tell you what, some incidents happens from time to time here in my house. We have Fawzi's room the same, remained the same. Sometimes I wake up, middle of the night, I don't find Soad, my wife. It's, it's... Now I know where she goes, because when I wake up, not finding her, I know that she went to his room, to sleep on his bed. Which... it hurts very much, very much.
